

SEWA INTERNATIONAL DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

Sewa International commits not to share, sell or trade our Donor's personal information including Donor names with any other organization or entity. Sewa International does not send mail on behalf other organization to our Donors.

Such information includes online and offline information received by Sewa International through (a) our website and mobile applications, and (b) any electronic, written, or oral communications.

Sewa International uses a third-party service provider to process donations and we commit to use our Donors' information only for the purposes of processing the donation.